16. Notwithstanding any other rule of priority in this Agreement, in the event of a Conflict between a Federal Law or a Provincial Law and a K'ómoks Law that has an incidental effect on an area of jurisdiction over which K'ómoks:
 - a) does not have law-making authority under this Agreement; or

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Federal Treaty Implementation Legislation and any other Act of Parliament, apply in accordance with this Agreement to K'ómoks, K'ómoks Members, K'ómoks Government, K'ómoks Public Institutions, K'ómoks Corporations or K'ómoks Lands, as the case may be.

INTERNATIONAL LEGAL OBLIGATIONS

27. Prior to expressing consent to be bound by an International Treaty that would give rise to a new International Legal Obligation, Canada will Consult with K'ómoks, separately or through a forum or means as appropriate, if compliance with the new International Legal Obligation may adversely affect a right of K'ómoks under this Agreement.
28. If, due to K'ómoks Law or another exercise of governmental authority of K'ómoks, Canada is or may be unable to comply with an International Legal Obligation, Canada and K'ómoks will collaborate to ensure that Canada is able to comply with the International Legal Obligation, taking into account the importance of the Parties complying with this Agreement.
29. For greater certainty, for the purposes of paragraph 28, K'ómoks Laws or other exercises of governmental authority cover both acts and omissions that can result in Canada being in violation of its International Legal Obligations.

- 32. For greater certainty, the Aboriginal rights of K'ómoks include Aboriginal title and the inherent right of self-government, as recognized and affirmed by section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982.
- 33. The Parties agree that this Agreement is intended to achieve flexibility, clarity and predictability in providing for the implementation of those rights as part of an ongoing relationship between the Parties, by setting out:
 - a) K'ómoks Exercisable Section 35 Rights, their attributes, the geographic extent of those rights and the limitations to those rights, to which the Parties have agreed; and
 - b) processes set out in the Periodic Renewal and Orderly Process Chapter and the Amendment Chapter by which Aboriginal rights of K'ómoks, or attributes or geographic extent of those rights, that are not exercisable or assertable pursuant to paragraph 35 may become K'ómoks Exercisable Section 35 Rights.
- 34. Nothing in this Agreement or the Treaty Implementation Legislation modifies or extinguishes any Aboriginal rights of K'ómoks, and Canada and British Columbia will not assert against K'ómoks that any Aboriginal rights of K'ómoks are modified, surrendered or extinguished as a result of this Agreement or the Treaty Implementation Legislation.
- 35. K'ómoks will only exercise or assert K'ómoks Exercisable Section 35 Rights.
- 36. The purpose of paragraph 35 is to ensure that as of the Effective Date:
 - a) K'ómoks can assert and exercise K'ómoks Exercisable Section 35 Rights; and
 - b) Canada, British Columbia and all other persons can exercise their rights, authorities, jurisdictions and privileges in a manner consistent with this Agreement, and do not have any obligations, including any fiduciary duties or duty to consult, in respect of any Aboriginal rights that pursuant to paragraph 35 are not exercisable or assertable.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

37. K'ómoks releases Canada, British Columbia and all other persons from all suits, actions, claims, proceedings or demands of whatever kind, whether known or unknown, that K'ómoks had, has or may have in the future, relating to or arising from any act or omission:

38. For greater certainty, paragraph 37 includes any suits, actions, claims, proceedings or demands based on the duty to consult in respect of the matters set out in paragraph 37.a) and 37.b).
39. For greater certainty, the releases in paragraph 37 are not intended to affect any rights and recourses that K'ómoks may have with respect to suits, actions, claims, proceedings or demands that are not based on any Aboriginal rights of K'ómoks.
40. The Parties will not challenge, and will vigorously defend any challenge to, the validity or legal effectiveness of K'ómoks' agreement not to assert or exercise Aboriginal rights of K'ómoks that are other than, or different in attributes, geographic extent or limitations from, K'ómoks Exercisable Section 35 Rights.
41. K'ómoks Lands are not "lands reserved for the Indians" within the meaning of section 91(24) of the Constitution Act, 1867, and there are no "reserves" within the meaning of the Indian Act for K'ómoks.

42. Nothing in this Agreement precludes K'ómoks from pursuing any claims that fall within the scope of Canada's Specific Claims Policy, in accordance with that policy, the Specific Claims Tribunal Act, or in court.
43. For greater certainty, if K'ómoks pursues a specific claim in court, Canada reserves the right to plead all defences available to it including limitation periods, the doctrine of laches and lack of admissible evidence, and K'ómoks reserves the right to make all possible counter arguments available to it.
44. For greater certainty, claims referred to in paragraph 42 will not result in any land being declared to be, or being set aside as "Lands reserved for the Indians" within the meaning of the Constitution Act, 1867 for K'ómoks, or an Indian Reserve for the use and benefit of K'ómoks.

45. Subject to paragraph 46, nothing in this Agreement will preclude K'ómoks from participating in or under any federal or provincial program or policy that may be developed in the future to address the legacy and impacts of, and past grievances related to, the Esquimalt & Nanaimo land grant (1883) on Indigenous groups on Vancouver Island, if K'ómoks meets the general criteria established for the program or policy in effect from time to time.
46. In respect of the scope of K'ómoks' participation in or under any program or policy referred to in paragraph 45, Canada and British Columbia are entitled to rely on paragraphs 31 to 40 to the extent that K'ómoks' claim falls within paragraph 37.
47. For greater certainty, paragraph 46 is not intended to generally exclude K'ómoks from any program or policy referred to in paragraph 45 for which other Indigenous groups, including Indigenous signatories to modern treaties, are eligible.
48. For greater certainty, paragraph 45 does not obligate Canada or British Columbia to establish any program or policy referred to in that paragraph.
49. The transfer of the Pentledge 2 Rail Corridor to K'ómoks will not be used to offset any compensation which K'ómoks is entitled to under Canada's Specific Claims Policy for loss of use of the land prior to the date of the transfer.

OTHER RIGHTS, BENEFITS AND PROGRAMS

50. K'ómoks Members who are Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada continue to be entitled to all of the rights and benefits for which they would otherwise be entitled to as Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada, applicable to them from time to time.
51. Subject to paragraph 53, nothing in this Agreement affects the ability of:
 - a) K'ómoks;
 - b) K'ómoks Members;
 - c) K'ómoks Government;
 - d) K'ómoks Public Institutions; or
 - e) K'ómoks Corporations,

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- to participate in, or benefit from, programs established by Canada or British Columbia for Indigenous individuals or groups, including programs for individuals registered under the Indian Act or non-status Indians, in accordance with criteria established for those programs from time to time.
52. Nothing in this Agreement affects the ability of K'ómoks, K'ómoks Institutions, K'ómoks Corporations or K'ómoks Members to apply for or bid on any commercial, economic or other activity or project for which they would otherwise be eligible.
53. K'ómoks Members are eligible to participate in programs established by Canada or British Columbia, and to receive services from Canada or British Columbia, in accordance with criteria established for those programs or services from time to time, to the extent that K'ómoks has not assumed responsibility for those programs or services under a Fiscal Arrangement or Fiscal Provision.
54. Nothing in this Agreement will preclude K'ómoks from participating in a provincial process or institution, including a process or institution that may address matters of shared decision-making and revenue and benefit sharing, or from benefiting from any future provincial program, policy or initiative of general application to First Nations as British Columbia develops a new relationship with First Nations, including the enactment of legislation to support these initiatives.
55. Nothing in this Agreement will preclude K'ómoks from entering into arrangements for economic opportunities, including economic benefit agreements, with third parties.

APPLICATION OF THE INDIAN ACT AND CONTINUATION OF INDIAN STATUS

56. Subject to the Transition Chapter and the Taxation Chapter, the Indian Act will have no application to K'ómoks, K'ómoks Members, K'ómoks Government, K'ómoks Public Institutions, or K'ómoks Corporations as of the Effective Date, except for the purposes of determining whether an individual is registered under the Indian Act.
57. For greater certainty, nothing in this Agreement will prevent a K'ómoks Member from being registered under the Indian Act if that individual is entitled to be registered in accordance with the Indian Act.
58. Subject to paragraph 10 of the Transition Chapter, the Framework Agreement on First Nation Land Management, the Framework Agreement on First Nation Land Management Act and the K'ómoks First Nation Land Code have no application to K'ómoks, K'ómoks Institutions, K'ómoks Members or K'ómoks Lands.

59. For so long as the Framework Agreement on First Nation Land Management is in effect and has the force of law, Canada will indemnify K'ómoks, and K'ómoks will indemnify Canada, in relation to Former K'ómoks First Nation Reserves, in the same manner and under the same conditions as would be the case if the Framework Agreement on First Nation Land Management applied to those lands.

JUDICIAL DETERMINATION IN RELATION TO VALIDITY

60. If a Superior Court, in a Final Judgment, determines any provision of this Agreement to be invalid or unenforceable:
- a) the Parties will make best efforts to amend this Agreement to remedy or replace the provision; and
 - b) the provision will be severable from this Agreement, to the extent of the invalidity or unenforceability, and the remainder of this Agreement will be construed, to the extent possible, to give effect to the intent of the Parties.
61. No Party will challenge, or support a challenge to, the validity of any provision of this Agreement.
62. A breach of this Agreement by a Party will not relieve any Party from its obligations under this Agreement.

OTHER ABORIGINAL PEOPLE

63. Nothing in this Agreement will affect, recognize or provide any rights under section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982 for any Aboriginal People other than K'ómoks.
64. If a Superior Court, in a Final Judgment, determines that any Aboriginal People, other than K'ómoks, has a right under section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982 that is adversely affected by a provision of this Agreement:
- a) that provision will operate and have effect to the extent it does not adversely affect that right; and
 - b) if the provision cannot operate and have effect in a way that it does not adversely affect that right, the Parties will make best efforts to amend this Agreement to remedy or replace that provision.
65. If Canada or British Columbia enters into a treaty or a land claims agreement within the meaning of sections 25 and 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982 with any other Aboriginal

People and that treaty or land claims agreement adversely affects K'ómoks Exercisable Section 35 Rights as set out in this Agreement:

- a) Canada or British Columbia, or both, as the case may be, will provide K'ómoks with additional or replacement rights, or other appropriate remedies; and
- b) at the request of K'ómoks, the Parties will negotiate and attempt to reach agreement on the provision of those additional, or replacement rights, or other appropriate remedies.

CONSULTATION

66. Canada and British Columbia acknowledge that they have a duty to consult and, if appropriate, accommodate K'ómoks regarding Contemplated Crown Conduct that may adversely affect K'ómoks Exercisable Section 35 Rights.
67. Canada and British Columbia will carry out consultation, as set out in paragraphs 66 to 79, with the aim of securing the free, prior and informed consent of K'ómoks.
68. The Parties have considered and designed processes and arrangements that are intended to govern the Crown's consultation obligations in respect of Contemplated Crown Conduct and agree that consultation, and, if appropriate, accommodation, will occur in accordance with the processes and arrangements contemplated under paragraphs 66 to 79.
69. Where a Specific Consultation Process applies to a particular type of Contemplated Crown Conduct, Canada or British Columbia, as applicable, and K'ómoks will rely on that process for the purposes of consultation in respect of that conduct.
70. Where there is no Specific Consultation Process applicable in respect of a particular type of Contemplated Crown Conduct, Canada or British Columbia, as applicable, will fulfill its duty to consult K'ómoks regarding that conduct in accordance with the process described in the term "Consult".
71. In relation to paragraphs 69 and 70, Canada or British Columbia, as applicable, and K'ómoks may supplement, change or replace that consultation process in respect of a particular type of Contemplated Crown Conduct by written agreement made outside of the Agreement.
72. Where Canada or British Columbia, as applicable, may have a consultation obligation in respect of Contemplated Crown Conduct but it reasonably believes that an emergency exists, it may act immediately to respond to that emergency.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

73. Canada or British Columbia will give notice of its intent to implement any measure to respond to an emergency, including the reasons for the measure identified under paragraph 72 to K'ómoks:
- a) before the measure is implemented if it is practicable to do so; or
 - b) as soon as practicable after the measure is implemented.
74. Any measure implemented by Canada or British Columbia to reasonably respond to an emergency pursuant to paragraph 72 shall only be in force for as long as necessary.
75. Canada or British Columbia will give notice to K'ómoks when the measure implemented pursuant to paragraph 72 is no longer in force.
76. K'ómoks may request that Canada or British Columbia review the continued necessity of any measure implemented pursuant to paragraph 72 and Canada or British Columbia shall fully and fairly consider any such request.
77. For greater certainty, the provision of notice under paragraph 73 does not limit the ability of the Parties to discuss, while the emergency is in effect and if the circumstances so allow:
- a) the adequacy and effectiveness of any measure implemented pursuant to paragraph 72; or
 - b) the interests or concerns of any Party related to that emergency measure.
78. Within 120 days from the notice given in paragraph 73, and if requested by K'ómoks, Canada or British Columbia as applicable will meet with K'ómoks to discuss:
- a) their respective views on the implementation of the measure for purposes of future emergency planning;
 - b) if applicable, the interests or concerns of any Party related to that emergency measure, including the impacts of the measure on K'ómoks Exercisable Section 35 Rights; and
 - c) if applicable, measures mutually agreed upon to address, mitigate or rectify the impacts of the emergency measure identified in paragraph 72.
79. The Parties will participate in the processes set out in paragraphs 66 to 78 in good faith and in a timely, responsive and meaningful way.

INFORMATION AND PRIVACY

80. For the purposes of federal and provincial access to information and privacy legislation, information that K'ómoks provides to Canada or British Columbia in confidence is deemed to be information received or obtained in confidence from another government.
81. If K'ómoks requests disclosure of information from Canada or British Columbia, the request will be evaluated as if it were a request by a province for disclosure of that information, but Canada and British Columbia are not required to disclose to K'ómoks information that is only available to a particular province or particular provinces or that is not available to any province.
82. The Parties may enter into agreements in relation to any one or more of the collection, protection, retention, use, disclosure and confidentiality of personal, general or other information in accordance with any applicable legislation, including federal and provincial access to information and privacy legislation.
83. Canada or British Columbia may provide information to K'ómoks in confidence, if K'ómoks has made a law or entered into an agreement with Canada or British Columbia, as the case may be, under which the confidentiality of the information will be protected.
84. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement:
- a) Canada and British Columbia will not be required to disclose any information that they are required or authorized to withhold under any Federal Law or Provincial Law, including under sections 37 to 39 of the Canada Evidence Act;
 - b) if Federal Law or Provincial Law allows the disclosure of certain information only if specified conditions for disclosure are satisfied, Canada and British Columbia will not be required to disclose that information unless those conditions are satisfied; and
 - c) the Parties will not be required to disclose any information that may otherwise be withheld under a privilege at law.

OBLIGATIONS TO NEGOTIATE

85. Whenever the Parties are obliged under any provision of this Agreement to negotiate and attempt to reach agreement, unless the Parties otherwise agree, all Parties will participate in the negotiations.
86. If this Agreement provides that the Parties, or any two of them, “will negotiate and attempt to reach agreement”, those negotiations will be conducted as set out in the Dispute Resolution Chapter, but none of the Parties are obliged to proceed to Stage Three of the Dispute Resolution Chapter unless, in a particular case, they are required to do so under paragraph 28 of the Dispute Resolution Chapter.

87. Where this Agreement provides that a dispute will be “finally determined by arbitration”, the process under paragraph 28 of the Dispute Resolution Chapter will apply.

OTHER AGREEMENTS

88. No agreement, plan, guideline or other document made by a Party or Parties that is referred to in or contemplated by this Agreement, including an agreement that is reached as a result of negotiations that are required or permitted by this Agreement, is:
- a) part of this Agreement; or
 - b) a treaty or land claims agreement, or creates, recognizes or affirms Aboriginal or treaty rights, within the meaning of sections 25 and 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

89. This Agreement is the entire agreement among the Parties in relation to the subject matter of this Agreement and, except as set out in this Agreement, there is no representation, warranty, collateral agreement, condition, right or obligation affecting this Agreement.
90. The Schedules and Appendices to this Agreement form part of this Agreement.

INTERPRETATION

91. The provisions in this chapter and the Periodic Renewal and Orderly Process Chapter prevail over the provisions in the other chapters of this Agreement to the extent of any inconsistency.

93. For greater certainty, any doubtful expressions, terms or provisions in this Agreement are to be interpreted in accordance with modern treaty interpretation principles, including that the text is to be interpreted in light of this Agreement as a whole and this Agreement’s objectives, consistent with the honour of the Crown, and having regard to the shared objective of advancing reconciliation between the Parties.

29. Subject to paragraph 28, for a species or species group where the K'ómoks Fish Allocation is defined as a fixed number, and in any year where the Minister determines that the quantity of a stock or species of Fish or Aquatic Plant that is available for harvest is not sufficient to meet all anticipated allocations from that stock or species to K'ómoks and other Indigenous groups for Domestic Purposes due to abundance concerns for that stock or species, the Minister will take into account recommendations from the Joint Fisheries Committee or any of the Parties and may reduce any one or more of those allocations for that year.
30. In any year, where the Joint Fisheries Committee or any Party makes a recommendation to the Minister to increase a maximum K'ómoks Fish Allocation described in Schedule 1, the Minister will take into account that recommendation.

An abundance-based approach may be developed for Chinook salmon, Coho salmon, Chum salmon or Pink salmon and, where Canada or K'ómoks proposes the establishment of an abundance-based formula for one or more of these species, Canada and K'ómoks will negotiate and attempt to reach agreement on the formula that will be set out in the Fisheries Operational Guidelines.
 35. Allocations of specific rockfish species may be determined annually by the Minister, taking into account recommendations of the Joint Fisheries Committee, as appropriate.
 36. The specific allocations in paragraph 35 may take into account conservation, which includes sustainability of specific rockfish species and associated area-based management measures.

 38. If permitted by, and subject to the conditions of, a K'ómoks Harvest Document or a licence, non-target stocks or species harvested in K'ómoks commercial fisheries targeting Halibut within the K'ómoks Fishing Area and the areas defined in Appendix Q-2 may be retained for Domestic Purposes and will be counted towards the defined maximum allocation for that non-targeted stock or species in Schedule 1, unless those non-targeted stocks or species are retained under a commercial licence.
 39. Any Periodic Renewal regarding K'ómoks Fish Allocations will be conducted in accordance with the process outlined in the Periodic Renewal and Orderly Process Chapter and in the Fisheries Operational Guidelines.

ALLOCATION DISPOSITION

40. For greater certainty, Fish and Aquatic Plants harvested under the K'ómoks Fishing Right for Domestic Purposes cannot be sold.

 - b) the apportionment of K'ómoks Fish Allocations between harvests for Domestic Purposes and sale purposes is set out in the K'ómoks Annual Fishing Plan; and,
 - c) any in-season changes to the apportionment between Domestic Purposes and sale purposes, will follow the in-season adjustment process outlined for the Joint Fisheries Committee and in the Fisheries Operational Guidelines.
42. Any portion of an allocation designated for sale purposes pursuant to paragraph 41 has the same priority in fisheries management decisions as commercial fisheries.
43. K'ómoks may only harvest that portion of the K'ómoks Fish Allocation designated for sale purposes under paragraph 41 where:

47. In paragraphs 48 to 53, “surplus” refers to a number of salmon that is available for harvest where spawner abundance is in excess of spawning requirements, following all other approved fisheries.
48. Each year the Minister may declare a surplus of a species or stock of salmon originating in the K'ómoks Fishing Area, the size of the surplus, and access to that surplus.
49. The Joint Fisheries Committee, or any Party, may recommend to the Minister with respect to a species or stock of salmon returning to spawn to the K'ómoks Fishing Area:
 - a) the procedures for the identification of a surplus;
 - b) the declaration of a surplus;
 - c) the size and disposition of the surplus; and

 - a) if a portion of the declared surplus may be harvested by K'ómoks; and
 - b) the terms and conditions for the harvest of the K'ómoks portion of the declared surplus.
52. For greater certainty, nothing in paragraph 50 limits the ability of the Minister to declare a surplus of a species or stock of salmon originating in the K'ómoks Fishing Area in the absence of recommendations from the Joint Fisheries Committee or any Party.
53. At the request of Canada or K'ómoks, Canada and K'ómoks will negotiate and attempt to reach agreement concerning the harvest of surpluses of a species of salmon in the terminal area that result from an approved Enhancement Initiative associated with the Puntledge and Courtenay River Watersheds.
54. Canada and K'ómoks commit to working collaboratively regarding the annual production, stock assessment and broodstock collection planning processes associated with salmon enhancement at the Puntledge River Hatchery.

55. Paragraphs 53 and 54 do not affect the Minister's authority to manage hatcheries within the Puntledge and Courtenay River Watersheds.

STAGES TO RESOLVE DISAGREEMENTS

10. The Parties intend that most Disagreements will be resolved by informal discussions between or among the Parties, without needing to invoke this chapter.
11. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, Disagreements not resolved informally will progress, until resolved, through the following stages:

31. A Party will be added as a Participant in the arbitration of a Disagreement, whether or not that Party has participated in Stage One or Stage Two, upon providing written notice to the Disputing Parties within 15 days of receiving the notice under paragraph 28 or a copy of a written agreement to arbitrate under paragraph 30.
32. Notwithstanding paragraph 31, at any time an Arbitral Tribunal may, of its own accord or on application of a Party, make an order adding a Party as a Participant, if the Arbitral Tribunal considers that:
- a) the Disputing Parties will not be unduly prejudiced; or
 - b) the issues raised in the arbitration are materially different from those identified in the notice to arbitrate under paragraph 28 or the written agreement to arbitrate in paragraph 29, and
- the Arbitral Tribunal may make any order it considers appropriate or necessary in the circumstances in relation to conditions upon which the Party will be added, including the payment of costs.

EFFECT OF ARBITRAL AWARD

33. An Arbitral Award is final and binding on all Parties whether or not a Party was a Participant in the arbitration.
